*1 runs on in a hurry. Frantic. Looking for something. Walking funny.
2 runs on in a hurry. Also frantic. Looking for something. Squeezing their legs together.
3 hobbles on, barely able to hurry but is the MOST frantic. Looking for something.
4 runs in also in similar distress. The frenzy grows as they search. Grunt. Look to each other for help. No one can find what they're looking for.*

*All stop and hold their crotches.
Exasperated.
Desperate.
They let out a collective yell!*

1: I just—

2 : I can't—

3 : I wish—

4 : I want to be—

2 : Normal.

1: Safe.

3 : Able.

4 : Everyday—

1 : We should—

2 : Just be able to—

4: No matter what.

3 : No matter where.

2: : Allow each other—

1 : Some simple—

4 : Form of—

ALL : RELIEF.

*All look at each other. All come to a visual agreement that this is as good a place as any.
They all pee where they stand. They share an incredible sigh of relief, joy, safety. They smile.*
